Dear Alumni and Friends!

Can you think of a better way to travel than with fellow University of California Santa Barbara Young Alumni?

The UCSB Alumni Association young alumni travel program, designed for grads ages 22 – 35, offers you this opportunity by bringing you together with individuals in the same age range, with similar backgrounds and experiences, while enriching you on well-designed, hassle-free tours of the world.

These programs provide social, cultural, and recreational activities and many opportunities for learning enrichment and enjoying a connection back to the University of California Santa Barbara. Our journeys are of great quality and value, operated by a travel company with over 46 years of experience in the young travel market. In this brochure you will find a detailed itinerary, travel dates and pricing.

If you have any questions about this tour, please contact our tour operator AESU Alumni World Travel by calling 800-638-7640 or email alumni@aesu.com. To make an online booking, please visit our young alumni tour landing page www.aesu.com/ucsb and select this tour to be directed to the tour web site.

We are looking forward to traveling with you this coming season.

Sincerely,

DAY 4 DUBLIN | GALWAY

Expect a day chock-full of whiskey-filled knowledge. A ‘behind-the-scenes’ tour at Tullamore D.E.W.’s state-of-the-art distillery is an exceptional experience for whiskey enthusiasts and novices alike. Learn about the process from distillation to maturation and discover the art of blending before savoring some of their award-winning whiskeys. Continue to Birr Castle with its grand gardens and intriguing science center. Enjoy a tranquil stroll among the exotic flowers of the castle’s award-winning gardens and browse the exhibits in the Historic Science Center before enjoying lunch in the castle’s café. We then make our way to Kilbeggan, established 1757 and one of the oldest distilleries in Ireland. We are invited to tour the old warehouses, meet with onsite distillers and taste four unique whiskeys. Our final destination today is Galway, on the west coast of Ireland. From castles to cathedrals, from stone forts to beaches and picturesque filming locations, Galway is a place of stunning natural beauty. Enjoy an evening at your leisure.

DAY 7 CORK | BALLYMALOE | JAMESON

This morning we head to Blarney Castle. Explore the grounds, then leave a kiss on the Blarney Stone and receive the gift of eloquence and persuasiveness. Our next stop is beautiful Ballymaloe, a famous cooking school in southern Ireland run by celebrity chef Darina Allen. The farm is accompanied by a full restaurant, shop, and café. We'll tour the organic gardens of this amazing establishment that practiced 'farm-to-table' service before it was cool. Afterwards, we'll enjoy lunch at the farm's restaurant. We continue to Midleton to go on a journey from past to present at the Jameson Distillery. Come face to face with the world's largest pot still, hear stories of Jameson's rich heritage, and learn about the hard-working people and field-to-glass processes responsible for the whiskey that bears John Jameson's name. The tour finishes with a guided tasting of three famous whiskeys. We return to Cork with free time to explore the city and make dinner plans with travel companions.

DAY 8

CORK | ENGLISH MARKET | ROCK OF CASHEL | KILKENNY CASTLE | DUBLIN

This morning we visit the English Market which is one of the oldest and most well-known markets in Ireland. A blend of local organic foods mixed with fares from all over, this market has been around since the 18th century. In the early afternoon, we are on our way north to Dublin. The Rock of Cashel, set on a dramatic outcrop of limestone in the Golden Vale, is our first stop en route. It is iconic in its historic significance, possesses the most impressive cluster of medieval buildings in Ireland and is one of the most visited sites. Next, we visit Kilkenny Castle, one of the largest and most important castles in Ireland's history dating from as far back as the first decade of the thirteenth century. Explore some of the castle's fifty acres of rolling parkland with mature trees and an abundance of wildlife. Visit the formal terraced rose garden, woodlands, and a man-made lake, or enjoy a cup of tea at the tearoom before we continue our journey to Dublin. At tonight's Farewell Ireland dinner, we share the good times we had on our journey and toast a final 'Slainte' to new-found friends.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Inclusions: English Market in Cork, Rock of Cashel, Kilkenny Castle, Irish farewell dinner

TOUR DIRECTORS

Your tour includes the services of a professional tour director throughout the land package. We are very proud of our tour directors. They are young professionals; multi-lingual and carefully selected graduates from major universities. They are eager to show you the world through the eyes of an adventurer. Our tour directors know this is a trip of a lifetime for you and will share their knowledge as well as interesting little-known facts. Our qualified tour directors and staff of local experts mean a trouble-free journey with the added security of group travel.

HOTELS

Our hotels offer superior tourist class accommodations, with private bathrooms. Hotels are centrally located and many offer great extra amenities such as pools, gyms or roof-top bars. All land package rates are based on two people sharing a room. If a single room is desired, a supplement of $745 applies. If traveling solo and not wanting to pay the single supplement, AESU will attempt to arrange a share with a same-gender traveler. If a share cannot be arranged the single supplement will apply.

“ IT WAS THE TRIP OF A LIFETIME. I LOVED THE TOUR DIRECTOR AND ALL OF MY FELLOW TRAVELERS. ”

They can accept no responsibility for strike, war, quarantine, epidemic health risk, any force majeure event, weather and any other natural or unnatural causes. Additional expenses, if incurred under any of these circumstances, will be borne by the tour participant. By forwarding the deposit, the passenger certifies that he/she has no physical, mental or other condition or disability that would create a hazard for himself/ herself or other passengers & accepts the terms of this contract. The right is reserved to decline, accept or retain any person as a member of the tour or to cancel or alter the tour as required. If improvements in the itinerary can be made, or unforeseen conditions beyond the Operator's control make changes necessary, they reserve the right to alter itineraries without penalty. TRAVEL INSURANCE is compulsory in the event of tour cancellation for any reason, medical expenses, personal accident, baggage and other personal items, liability and 24-hr emergency assistance. Trip insurance may be offered directly by your Alumni Association. In the event of cancellation due to insufficient number of participants, the Operator's liability shall be limited to a refund of land payments received from applicants, except non-refundable airfare and insurance. If the change or cancellation is due to force majeure or other similar events beyond Operator's control, a refund of land payments received from applicants will be made less reasonable expenses incurred by Operator in respect to applicant's land booking. Baggage and personal injury are at owner's risk entirely. The issuance or acceptance of vouchers or tickets shall be considered consent of the above conditions. The Operator reserves the right to increase the program price in the event of cost increases due to changes in airfares, currency fluctuations or fuel surcharges. The airlines concerned and their affiliates and agents are not to be held responsible for any act, omission or event during the time passengers are not on board the aircrafts. The passenger ticket in use by said airlines, when issued, shall constitute the sole contract between the airlines and the purchaser of these tickets and/ or the passenger. All services are subject to the laws of the country in which these services are rendered. No refund or allowance will be made for absence during the tour, or for activities missed, even if for causes beyond the control of the participant.
