DAY 4 SIEM REAP – ANGKOR WAT

Ancient temples rise through the thick mysterious jungle as we visit the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Angkor Wat and Banteay Srei Temples today. Angkor Wat is famous for its splendor and features the longest continuous bas-relief in the world narrating stories from Hindu mythology. It was originally constructed as a Hindu temple dedicated to the god Vishnu for the Khmer Empire, then gradually transformed into a Buddhist temple towards the end of the 12th century. After lunch at a local restaurant, we visit incredible Ta Prohm; the fortified city of Angkor Thom; the mysterious Bayon Temple; and the Terrace of the Leper Kings. Surrounded by the jungle, these ancient temples settle among enormous fig trees and giant creeper roots, slowly becoming reclaimed by the powerful forces of nature. We return to Siem Reap for our overnight.

Following breakfast, we board our motor coach for the drive to Phnom Penh. Along the way we stop to explore the intriguing Spider Market and the historic Naga Bridge. In Phnom Penh, we dive into the poignant history of the region with a visit to the Tuol Sleng prison, also known as the Genocide Museum or S-21 (Security Office 21). This facility, once a Khmer Rouge security camp, offers insights into its dark past, originally designed for the interrogation and persecution of those deemed anti-Angkor. The day concludes with a delightful dinner at a local restaurant.

Later, we'll visit the hilltop Buddhist Temple, Wat Phnom, the Choeng Ek Killing Field Memorial, and finally the central market, designed by French architect Louis Chauchon. It was constructed in 1937 in the shape of a dome with four arms branching out into vast hallways with countless stalls offering goods for sale. Following this historical exploration, we visit the Reunification Palace, an enduring symbol of the war's conclusion in 1975. Our next stop is the Ben Thanh Market, an iconic landmark in the city.

In the evening we are invited to a water puppet show, a unique Vietnamese art form performed in a large pool. Later you may explore Ho Chi Minh City's nightlife. DAY 9 HO CHI MINH CITY – TRAVEL HOME or continue to HANOI and HA LONG BAY EXTENSION

For some of us, our Indochina adventure ends after breakfast as we say good-bye to new-found friends. For the rest of us, a quick flight to Hanoi awaits!

It is the capital of Vietnam, and a stylish and gracious city that retains a unique old-world charm and some of Asia's most striking colonial architecture. The many lakes and parks also create a relaxing atmosphere in this otherwise bustling city.

Explore the city and visit the One Pillar Pagoda, the Temple of Literature (the first national university of Vietnam built in 1070), and the "Hanoi Hilton" prison (where John McCain and other POWs were kept during the Vietnam War). In the afternoon, join a fun 'Cyclo' rickshaw ride through the buzzing Old Quarter of Hanoi.

For dinner, we have the pleasure of dining at KOTO Van Mieu restaurant, which not only serves delicious food but also contributes to a noble cause by providing hospitality training and life skills to disadvantaged youth in Vietnam.

During your free evening, soak up the nightlife from a plastic stool in the walking street district sampling steamed peanuts and exotic snacks, or go high-end at a famous jazz club or insane multi-level nightclub.
